

Designation: Teaching Fellow

Job Purpose: The Department of History at Ashoka University is looking for one (01) Teaching Fellow (TF) for the Spring semester 2022 to assist in History of India IV: From 1764 to 1967, a mandatory course for undergraduate students pursuing a Major in History or History-International Relations.

The course will be conducted online until mid-February at least. The University will inform in advance about the teaching mode for the rest of the semester, until the end of April. The TF will be expected to begin work as soon as the appointment is made.

Remuneration: Rs.40,000/- per month

Duties and responsibilities:

The TF will be expected to:

- Attend the two weekly lectures of 90 minutes each, help set up these lectures via the university's learning management system (AMS), record them and post them. They might also be expected to grade student performance in the classroom.
- Hold discussion sessions (DS) for a minimum of 3 hours every week.
- Be available for office hours 2 hours every week.
- Meet the course instructor at least once a week to consult on the objectives and lesson plan for the week's discussion sections.
- Do the readings assigned for the course.
- Help the students with their assignments and provide comments on all tutorial work submitted by them.
- If required, grade in timely fashion all student assignments, quizzes and exams the course instructor might assign during the semester.

Qualifications:

- Candidates should ideally have completed their MPhil or PhD degree. They should demonstrate an interest in the historian's craft, and possess a deep intellectual curiosity.
- Those with a First class MA and doing M Phil or PhD may also apply.
- Those with PhD and research/teaching experience will be given preference.

How to Apply:

- Interested candidates should send their application by Wednesday, 19th January 2022 to history@ashoka.edu.in.
- The application should include (1) one writing sample that demonstrates the candidate's critical thinking ability (2) a covering letter on why they are interested in this position (3) a resume with the names and contact details of two references.
- Shortlisted candidates will be called for an online interview on Friday, 21th January 2022. The timing for the interview will be communicated to individual candidates.
- All selections will be made by the faculty members of the Department of History and will be final.