

	Breakfast
9.30 -11 am	Introduction to Modern Economics: A Global Perspective Prof. Piyali Banerjee	Economic Policies: A Comparative Study of India and Other Economies Prof. Lalit Contractor	Digital Humanities: utilizing quants for social sciences OR Temple Economy in pre-modern India: Stories of culture, religion, and	Harvesting Haze: A Sociological Exploration of Delhi's Winter Smog	Money and Numismatics: Lessons from the past in imperial fiscal policy development OR Books for society: a session with the faculty off English
	Break
11.30-1.00 pm	Migrations and inequality: why do some migrants fare better than others? OR Designing interventions and policy: encouraging behaviors and inducing sustainability	What has policy got to do with it? A study of how selected art becomes state-sponsored	The story of Development Economics - decolonized nations and their unique economic position	Past and Present: How does historical reality shape contemporary policies	Pink Access: Can affirmative action mitigate gender disparity at work OR Recovering Heritage: Understanding postcolonial politics of reparations (IR)
1.00-2.00 pm	Lunch
2.00 - 4.00 pm	Workshop
	Policy building workshop: Locating problems, analyzing possibilities, driving solutions	The art of storytelling: Using narratives to communicate data	Recreating the Indian Parliament: debating policy	Workshop from the Archives centre: Are Oral History collections a fair source base to build Historical narratives?	Students present their integrated projects, incorporating learnings from all modules.
	Break
4.30 - 5.30 pm	Guest Speaker/ Future Stream
	Guest Speaker: Policy as a career?	Uncovering your Calling: Possibilities and Potentials College & Career Counselor Session	Guest Speaker: Social Media as Newsroom	Session with an Oral History Practitioner	Students present their integrated projects, incorporating learnings from all modules
	Break
6.00 pm - 8.00 pm	Social, Cultural & Sports
	Introduction to Ashoka	Chaat & Chat		Talent Night	Kabootar Jaa
	Dinner

